A FAMOUS MAN COMING.

Rev. W. J. Dawson of London, Eng., Will Speak in Barre, Feb. 7.

The Rev. Wm. J. Dawson of London, Eng., whose addresses at the National Council of Congregational Churches at Des Moines, Iowa, last October produced so wonderful an impression and became the central figure of that great gathering; who later conducted a remarkable religious campaign in Brooklyn, N. Y., under the auspices of Dr.
Newell Dwight Hillis and Plymouth church; and who, at the earnest solicitation of the leaders of the Congregational pulpit in America has returned to make a tour of the United States, is coming to Vermont. He will reach this state February 7 and 8, and Barre and Montpelier are the favored places. He will speak in Barre on the evening of Tuesday, Feb. 7. The next evening he will be in Montpelier. All the people of the state, of all denominations, are to be invited to attend. Arrangements are making for special trains and reduced fares. These should be days of moral and spiritual uplift of the best sort.

Dr. Dawson may be fairly called the leading exponent of the New Evangelism, a man of international influence and reputation. Don't miss this chance. Reserve Feb. 7 and 8.

Greatly in Demand.

Nothing is more in demand than a medicine which meets modern requirements for a blood and system-cleanser, such as Dr. King's New Life Pills. They are just what you need to cure stomach and liver troubles. Try them. At the Red Cross and Parlor Drug Stores.
Price, 25 cents. Guaranteed.

WEBSTERVILLE.

There will be an entertainment at the Upper Websterville school house, Thursday evening, February 2. All cordially invited. Admission ten (10) cents.

JAPAN AS A PROTECTOR

M. S. Uchida Tells of Her Mission in Far East.

FOR CHINA AND KOREA

Japanese Consul General at New York Explains Why Japan Wants to Save Them from Russia.

M. S. Uchida, Japan's consul general in New York city, in responding to the toast "American Enterprises in the Orient" at the recent Michigan society dinner in the Hotel Astor, at New York, said:

"American sympathy for Japan is appreciated. The attitude of Japan in the present war is for the preservation of her national existence. Incidentally she is fighting for China and Korea, for they are cowards. They do not dare to fight Russia alone, not even to prevent their territory from being partitioned. They do not dare to fight for their own interests.

"Japan is compelled to fight for other nations to preserve her own interests in these two countries. If China and Korea were annexed by Russia my country would be at the mercy of the sullen bear. That is why we want the independence of China and Korea assured.

"We insist on the open policy in China and Korea. If other nations get in there, China and Korea would be held from any particular power in the western world.

"If Manchuria and Korea had more American, French and German and other nations interested in these two domains, Russia would not dare annex these countries. That is why we want the open door for the protection of them.

"We cannot tell when the war will end, but now that Port Arthur has been captured and that Russian stronghold taken, now that the fate of her army in Manchuria is doubtful, now that Russia has serious internal troubles, we have very optimistic hopes for final victory in this fight against the bear.

"It would not be entirely premature to discuss what we will do and what you and other nations will do in the orient after the war is over.

"I am not in a position to discuss the political programme, but I can safely say we must enter another great struggle not only against Russia, but against the whole civilized world—that is, a commercial and industrial fight for China and Korea.

"In order to gain success in these branches we must use great energy, a great deal of money and great rapidity.
In these two countries there is a great property in commerce and industry, as great as in any country in the world.
There are gold and iron mines, and many thousand miles of railroads can be built. There are many strongholds to be improved. We must educate the natives.

"If we make a success in the commercial and industrial interests in the two countries we can make a great future. Entering upon that kind of competition every other nation must be supposed to be our rival. We must not be friendly to any. We understand conditions better than any nation."

Keep Thinking About It.

Cough Syrups that are constipating leave the stomach and bowels in a dangerous condition. A cough syrup that is a laxative is sure to give better results. Lix-all is a laxative, and if it fails to cure your cough or cold we will pay back your money.

WOMAN'S SYMPATHY.

Is Proverbial—The Barre Women Are No Exception.

How much we owe to the sympathetic side of womankind! When others suffer they cheerfully lend a helping hand.
They tell you the means which brought relief to them that you may profit by their experience. Read the testimony by this woman.

Mrs. C. H. White of 35 West Street says: "Not constantly but far too often to be pleasant, for a number of years I had severe attacks of backache.
It was sometimes difficult to sit down and just as hard to rise, and despite the fact that I exhausted all my knowledge of simple household remedies all the results I ever obtained were merely temporary. I was in pretty bad shape for some time, suffering both day and night, when I was induced to go to E.
A. Drown's drug store for a box of Doan's Kidney Pills. I knew after a dose or two that they were working directly upon the kidneys, and as I continued the treatment relief became more possitive. When I finished it that particular attack disappeared. I found Doan's Kidney Pills so effective a remedy for kidney complaint that I am certain that any person annoyed with backache or any of the incidents which follow in the wake of either weakened or overtaxed kidneys will find relief if not possitive cure, if they take a course of the treatment."

Sold for 50 cents by all dealers. Foster-McIlburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the United States.
Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

SAFE 6 PER CENT INCOME.

Why leave your money in the savings bank and draw only 3 per cent to 3 1/2 per cent income when it is possible to get 6 per cent with just as good security? We are offering a 6 per cent first mortgage bond on real estate with a BONUS OF VALUABLE COMMON STOCK. This bond is on a property which is giving an assured income, all of which is to be deposited with the International Trust Company of Boston for the early redemption of the bonds.

If you have money lying idle, why not double your income on it? This is a proposition which you should investigate.
Write or call immediately, as the issue of bonds is small.
